Discovery Exercise 3 – Genesis 3

Instructions:

The objective of this exercise is to gain a better understanding of what the biblical creation narrative communicates about the God of the Bible and how this part of God’s story can help us live in right relationship with God.

1. Underline every reference to God speaking to someone in this text (underline both who God is talking to and what God is saying).
2. Double underline the command of God broken by Adam and Eve in this text.
3. Circle what Eve and Adam did with the fruit of the tree of knowledge.
4. Put a box around the phrases that help us see how Eve perceived the fruit of the tree.
5. Highlight the phrase that describes the activity of God on a normal day in the garden.

After completing this exercise respond to the following questions.

1. What do we learn about the God of the Bible from Genesis 3?

2. What do we learn about how humanity related to God after the Fall in Genesis 3?

will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.”¹⁶ To the woman he said, “I will surely multiply your pain in childbearing; in pain you shall bring forth children. Your desire shall be contrary to your husband, but he shall rule over you.”¹⁷ And to Adam he said, “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, ‘You shall not eat of it,’ cursed is the ground because of you; in pain you shall eat of it all the days of your life;¹⁸ thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you; and you shall eat the plants of the field.¹⁹ By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread, till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for you are dust, and to dust you shall return.”²⁰ The man called his wife’s name Eve, because she was the mother of all living.²¹ And the LORD God made for Adam and for his wife garments of skins and clothed them.²² Then the LORD God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of us in knowing good and evil. Now, lest he reach out his hand and take also of the tree of life and eat, and live forever—”²³ therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken.²⁴ He drove out the man, and at the east of the garden of Eden he placed the cherubim and a flaming sword that turned every way to guard the way to the tree of life.
