

Joshua and Judges. Joshua takes the reins from Moses, a great leader who had just led the Israelites to an amazing part of their journey. Now they sit at the cusp of the Promised Land. Joshua meekly and humbly takes over and leads the nation of Israel to follow God and see God's hand give victory after victory. It's incredible to see how the Israelite nation succeeds as long as they follow Joshua as he seeks God day by day. And then as Joshua passes away, we see the judges. Each of them intricately brings a part of this story to life to see how Israel follows judges who seek God and judges who stumble along the way. It will be incredible to be able to notice how each of these stories points us again to Christ and the part he plays for us in the greater narrative of Scripture. So I hope you'll enjoy this study of Joshua and Judges as much as I have.
